Sunday School

At First Baptist

Sunday School is very important at First Baptist Church. Besides the Bible study, Sunday School also offers you the opportunity to be with others around your own age and with whom you have things in common. It is especially important if you are accustomed to a smaller church; Sunday School is where everyone knows one another. With Sunday School, our church can be both small enough for fellowship and large enough to offer a complete range of ministries. You haven't completely tried First Baptist until you have tried Sunday School.

Adult Division—8:45 a.m.

At First Baptist our adult classes are not strictly age-graded. People often try several classes before they find the one that fits them. Sometimes, people find a class outside their exact age-group, but they feel at home and are welcomed. Profiles of the classes are provided in this brochure to help you decide where to start. In classes marked, "co-ed" men and women attend, but you don't necessarily have to have a spouse with you. Some members attend these classes without a spouse; sometimes the spouse teaches in another class.

Adults have two options for Sunday School: 8:45 a.m. or 10:00 a.m. Worship services are offered at the same times. The following Sunday School classes are offered during the 8:45 hour:

Couples 20-34: Abe & Brooke Rigsby, Teachers, Room 303. This class is for couples with or without children.

Co-ed 30-45: Greg Pate, Teacher, Room 208. A discussion class for 30's and 40's. This is not a couples only class.

Co-ed 35-45: David Hyde, Teacher, Room 203. This discussion class is primarily—though not exclusively—couples.

Co-ed 40-55: Steve Stokes, Teacher, Room 301. If you just want to listen and learn and would prefer not to be called on to read or offer an opinion, this may be the class for you.

Co-ed 45-60: Bruce Brown, Teacher, Room 201. Not limited to couples only, this class studies scriptures book by book.

Co-ed 60-up: Al Harris, Teacher, Fireside Room. This is a class of mostly – though not exclusively – retired people. Most members – though not all – are couples. Part-discussion, part-lecture format.

Women 55-70: Carolyn Miller, Teacher, Room 205. This class has a half-discussion, half-lecture format. There is a fairly wide range of ages in the class, though most are career women and retired women. All are active.

Women 60-up: Rotating roster of teachers, Room 204. This is a discussion class for ladies. Most of their husbands are retired. And most of these ladies are lifelong residents of the Tallassee area.

Baraca 65-up: Rotating roster of teachers, Baraca is the Hebrew word for "blessing". For many decades all men of all ages attended the Baraca Class. It continues to be a class for men of all ages, though most members are of retirement age. Lecture format; you will not be called upon to read or discuss.

"Your Word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path."

Psalm 119:105

Adult Division—10:00 a.m.

The following Sunday School classes are offered during the 10:00 a.m. hour:

College/Career (co-ed): Chuck & Amy Jeter, Teachers, Room 207. This class is for those in college or getting started in a career.

Co-ed 30-45: Scott Ledbetter, Teacher, Room 303. A high percentage of this classes' members are from the Tallassee area, mainly of people in their mid-20s to mid-30s. This class has a 'folksy' style and though with some lecture, members feel free to engage in discussion.

Women 35-49: Joanna Varner, Teacher, Room 208. A discussion class for women, mostly in their 30s through their 40s.

Co-ed 35-45: Jeff Baker and Brad Davis, Teachers, Room 203, A round-table, totally discussion class predominately made up of men and women in their early 40s.

Co-ed 40-55: Mark Kuehndorf, Teacher, Room 301. This is a true discussion class. Hardly anyone in this class grew up in this area. Several members have military backgrounds or teach school.

Co-ed 45-60: Charles Ames, Teacher, Room 206. This new class is predominately a couples' class of 40-somethings and 50-somethings. Many members of this class live in the Tallassee area. A fair percentage are not from the Tallassee area at all. Half-discussion, half-lecture format.

Adult Men: Dr. Russell Chandler, Teacher, Room 202, Members generally range from '50-something' to their late 60's. If you want a small discussion class for men this may be your favorite.

Ages 50 & Up (co-ed): Jim Vaught and Gary Shaw, Teachers, Fireside Room. Most members – though not all – are couples. Part-discussion, part-lecture format.

Co-ed 60-up: Tim Ledbetter, Glen Sutton, Teachers, Room 205. This class is for those who are about to or have already retired. This class is not limited to couples only.

Women 50-75: Dr. Michelle Mitchell, Teacher, Room 204. There is a wide range of ages in this discussion format class.

Special Friends: Toni McGhar & Jennifer Hyde teach this special needs class. This class meets in room 201.
