

Evaluating Our Children's Class

Our Class Routine

Please check box if yes

- Our teachers are in the room before the first child arrives.
- The room is prepared for the lesson before the children arrive.
- Workers warmly greet the children by name as they enter the class.
- The room is uncluttered. There is more space than equipment.
- The furniture is the size appropriate for the age of the children.
- The Bible is in evidence in the room.
- The visuals are at the eye-level of the children.
- Books, art materials, etc. needed for the lesson are available in the room.
- The room is arranged by activities, rather than "chairs around tables."
- We teach "one lesson at a time." Visuals are on the theme of today's lesson, not a bunch of old stuff cluttering the room and over-stimulating the children.
- The children can choose from several activities.
- The children help clean up and return supplies to their proper place.
- Teachers serve as facilitators, neither spectators nor lecturers.
- Children are helped to think, learn, make decisions, and plan for themselves.
- The teachers enjoy teaching & the children feel a sense of accomplishment.
